The West Virginia Italian Heritage Festival has been rated among the top 100 events in North America and a top 20 event in the Southeast. The festival includes three days of free entertainment on three stages. Fantastic foods, children's entertainment, a grand parade, cultural events and queens' pageant.

september: www.wvihf.com

Mountain Heritage arts & Crafts Festival – Harpers Ferry

Nearly 200 artisans selected for the high quality of their products will sell and demonstrate their wares at this nationally acclaimed festival. West Virginia wineries are participating with wine tasting and sales for off-premises consumption. Children's activities, such as pony rides and a model railway display, will be available. Enjoy a variety of food and the best in Bluegrass music.

september: www.jeffersoncounty.com/festival

Preston County Buckwheat Festival – Kingwood

Join the Kingwood community for its 65th annual buckwheat festival. Special parades salute firemen, schools and the community and local heritage. Agricultural and livestock exhibits and awards share the fairgrounds with arts & crafts, carnival rides, distance runs, musical entertainment and Irish bowling. Best of all, buckwheat pancakes and sausage meals are dished up every day — all day long.

september: www.prestoncounty.com

Mountain State Forest Festival – elkins

Promotes the beauty of West Virginia with more than 100 events — just a few highlights are the classic rock show, country music show, gospel sing, talent show, fireman's parade, grand feature parade, Irish road bowling, children's parade, Coronation of Queen Silvia, lumberjack contest, jousting, and entertainment at the city park and downtown stage.

september-october: www.forestfestival.com

Black Walnut Festival – Spencer

This festival beginning in 1954 celebrates the abundant black walnut harvest. Visitors can buy handmade arts and crafts, watch agricultural and livestock competitions, hop on a carnival ride, join in a dance and sample local food. Plus there's live entertainment, a colorful parade and a traditional beauty pageant.

october: www.wvblackwalnutfestival.org

Hinton Railroad Days – Hinton

Street fair in beautiful historic downtown Hinton coinciding with the arrival of the New River Train excursion from Huntington. More than 60 vendors sell fine art and crafts, jewelry, one-of-a-kind items, quilts and much more. Food vendors offer a range of taste treats from chicken and dumplings, brown beans and cornbread, to barbecues, hotdogs, hamburgers, kielbasa sandwiches, pizza, funnel cakes and ice cream.

october: www.summerscvb.com

CALL FOR EVENTS in West Virginia

For more information on these and many other great Fall events in West Virginia, visit www.Callwva.com or Call 1-800-Call wva.

“Climb the mountains and get their good tidings. Nature’s peace will flow into you as sunshine flows into trees. The winds will blow their own freshness into you, and the storms their energy, while cares will drop away from you like the leaves of Autumn.”

- John Muir

New River Gorge Bridge Day Festival – Fayetteville

Bridge Day is the largest extreme sports event in the world and is held the third Saturday in October every year in Fayetteville. Hundreds of BASE jumpers and nearly 200,000 spectators attend. The New River Gorge Bridge, at 876 feet tall and the world's second longest single arch bridge, serves as the launch point for six hours of legal BASE jumps.

october: www.officialbridgeday.com

Pumpkin Festival – Milton

The West Virginia Pumpkin Festival is a family activity with juried arts and crafts, commercial and business displays, live entertainment and food that all celebrate the autumn pumpkin harvest. Thursday and Friday are Kids Days with appropriate entertainment and educational programs. Features the Largest Pumpkin Contest to determine the largest pumpkin grown in West Virginia each year.

october: www.wvpumpkinpark.com

Taste of Our Towns Festival – Lewisburg

Scheduled during the most colorful time of the year, Taste of our Towns (TOOT) is a fall favorite in West Virginia! Please the palate with great food ranging from fried chicken and hot dogs to gourmet dishes and homemade desserts. Enjoy foods of Appalachia as well as specialties from The Greenbrier, Tamarack and the Greenbrier Valley's own restaurants. There is something for everyone! TOOT features live music, museum exhibits, a juried art and craft show, a street dance, pony rides and children's activities.

october: www.carnegiehallwv.com

30/8
The West Virginia Italian Heritage Festival has been rated among the top 100 events in North America and a top 20 event in the Southeast. The festival includes three days of free entertainment on three stages. Fantastic foods, children's entertainment, a grand parade, cultural events and queens' pageant.

September: www.wvihf.com

The Mountain Heritage Arts & Crafts Festival – Harpers Ferry

Nearly 200 artisans selected for the high quality of their products will sell and demonstrate their wares at this nationally acclaimed festival. West Virginia wineries are participating with wine tasting and sales for off-premises consumption. Children's activities, such as pony rides and a model railway display, will be available. Enjoy a variety of food and the best in Bluegrass music.

September: www.jeffersoncounty.com/festival

Preston County Buckwheat Festival – Kingwood

Join the Kingwood community for its 65th annual buckwheat festival. Special parades salute firemen, schools and the community and local heritage. Agricultural and livestock exhibits and awards share the fairgrounds with arts & crafts, carnival rides, distance runs, musical entertainment and Irish bowling. Best of all, buckwheat pancakes and sausage meals are dished up every day — all day long.

September: www.prestoncounty.com

Mountain State Forest Festival – Elkins

Promotes the beauty of West Virginia with more than 100 events – just a few highlights are the classic rock show, country music show, gospel sing, talent show, fireman's parade, grand feature parade, Irish road bowling, children's parade, Coronation of Queen Silvia, lumberjack contest, jousting, and entertainment at the city park and downtown stage.

September-October: www.forestfestival.com

Black Walnut Festival – Spencer

This festival beginning in 1954 celebrates the abundant black walnut harvest. Visitors can buy handmade arts and crafts, watch agricultural and livestock competitions, hop on a carnival ride, join in a dance and sample local food. Plus there's live entertainment, a colorful parade and a traditional beauty pageant.

October: www.wvblackwalnutfestival.org

Hinton Railroad Days – Hinton

Street fair in beautiful historic downtown Hinton coinciding with the arrival of the New River Train excursion from Huntington. More than 60 vendors sell fine art and crafts, jewelry, one-of-a-kind items, quilts and much more. Food vendors offer a range of taste treats from chicken and dumplings, brown beans and cornbread, to barbecues, hotdogs, hamburgers, kielbasa sandwiches, pizza, funnel cakes and ice cream.

October: www.summerscvb.com

West Virginia is a land of promise where you'll find more than 1,200 scenic places, 5,000 miles of hiking trails, 800 miles of climbing rock lines, 860 miles of white-water rafting routes, 200 miles of canoeing and kayaking, 1,200 miles of mountain biking trails, and more than 600 miles of snowboarding trails. Mountain State is in your backyard – every season. From our scenic vistas to the sumptuous flavors of our food, West Virginia is the perfect place to experience the state. All year round. Anywhere. Anytime.

The West Virginia Division of Tourism is your year-round source for information about West Virginia. For more information on these and many other great fall events in West Virginia, visit www.CallWVA.com or Call 1-800-Call WVA.

― John Muir
ITALIAN HERITAGE FESTIVAL - CLARKSBURG
The West Virginia Italian Heritage Festival has been rated among the top 100 events in North America and a top 20 event in the Southeast. The festival includes three days of free entertainment on three stages. Fantastic foods, children’s entertainment, a grand parade, cultural events and pageants.
September: www.wvihf.com

MOUNTAIN HERITAGE ARTS & CRAFTS FESTIVAL - HARPERS FERRY
Nearly 500 artisans selected for the high quality of their products will sell and demonstrate their wares at this nationally acclaimed festival. West Virginia artisans are participating with even tastier and sales for off-premises consumption. Children’s activities, such as pony rides and a model railway display, will be available. Enjoy a variety of food and fun in Bluegrass music.
September: www.jeffersoncounty.com/festival

BUCKWHEAT FESTIVAL - KINGWOOD
Join the Kingwood community for its 65th annual buckwheat festival. Special parades salute firemen, schools and the community and local heritage. Agricultural and livestock exhibits and animal sale share the fairgrounds with arts & crafts, music, games, volleyball,拔河比赛 and children’s entertainment. All of the above mentioned and more are dished up every day — all day long.
September: www.prestoncounty.com

MOUNTAIN STATE FOREST FESTIVAL - ELKINS
Promotes the beauty of West Virginia with over 100 events — just a few highlights are the classic rock show, country music show, gospel sing, talent show, fireman’s parade, grand feature parade, Irish road bowling, children’s parade, presentation of Queen Silvia, lumberjack contest, jousting, and entertainment at the city park and downtown stage.
September-October: www.forestfestival.com

BLACK WALNUT FESTIVAL - SPENCER
This festival beginning in 1954 celebrates the abundant black walnut harvest. Visitors can buy handmade arts and crafts, watch agricultural and livestock competitions, compete in a corn roast, join in a dance and sample local food. There’s live entertainment, a colorful parade and a traditional beauty pageant.
October: www.wvblackwalnutfestival.org

HINTON RAILROAD DAYS - HINTON
Street fair in beautiful historic downtown Hinton coinciding with the arrival of the New River Train excursion from Huntington. More than 60 vendors sell fine arts and crafts, jewelry, one-of-a-kind items, quilts and much more. Food vendors offer a range of taste treats from chicken and dumplings, brown beans and cornbread, to barbecues, hotdogs, hamburgers, kielbasa sandwiches, pizza, frozen cakes and ice cream.
October: www.summerscvb.com

NEW RIVER GORGE BRIDGE DAY FESTIVAL - FAYETTEVILLE
Bridge Day is the largest extreme sports event in the world and is held the third Saturday in October every year in Fayetteville. Hundreds of BASE jumpers and nearly 200,000 spectators attend. The New River Gorge Bridge, an 876 foot tall and the world’s second longest single span bridge, serves as the launch point for six hours of legal BASE jumps.
October: www.oficialbridgeday.com

TASTE OF OUR TOWNS FESTIVAL - LEWISBURG
Scheduled during the most colorful times of the year, Taste of our Towns (TOOT) is a fall favorite in West Virginia! Please the palate with great food ranging from fresh chicken and hot dogs to gourmet dishes and homemade desserts. Enjoy foods of Appalachia as well as specialties from The Greenbrier, Research and the Greatveldt’s own restaurants. There is something for everyone! TOOT features live music, museum exhibits, a juried art and craft show, a street dance, pony rides and children’s activities.
October: www.carnegiehallwv.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THESE AND MANY OTHER GREAT FALL EVENTS IN WEST VIRGINIA, VISIT www.CALLWVA.COM OR CALL 1-800-CALL-WVA.

HINTON: www.hintonwv.gov
PRESTON COUNTY: www.prestoncounty.com
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH: www.presbyterian.org
PUMPKIN FESTIVAL - MILTON
The West Virginia Pumpkin Festival is a family activity with juried arts and crafts, commercial and business displays, live entertainment and food that all celebrates the autumn pumpkin harvest. Thursday and Friday are Kids Days with appropriate entertainment and educational programs. Features the Largest Pumpkin Contest to determine the largest pumpkin grown in West Virginia each year.
October: www.wvpumpkinpark.com

PRIORITY BUSINESS LISTING
1800 CALL WVA
FALL COLO
1800 CALL WVA
www.callwva.com

PICTURE A LAND
that’s almost entirely covered in forest, interspersed with towering mountain vistas, rocky crags and sparkling tumbling streams. Beneath the trees, the land is teeming with wildlife, from woodbirds and wild trout to raccoons and black bears.

RECREATION
abounds here including world class whitewater rafting, mountain biking, rock-climbing and rock climbing for the adrenaline-seekers. Relaxation is easy to find in the spa towns and in shops that feature fine crafts made by locals. History lovers revel in the many Civil War and pioneer life re-enactments, while food connoisseurs delight in the variety of traditional fare and fine dining.

GOLFCERS CAN TAME
the links on courses designed by the likes of Arnold Palmer, Pete Dye, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Robert Trent Jones Jr. These renowned architects of the game were inspired by the rugged terrain that surrounds their challenging masterpieces.

TRAILS FOR EVERY
type of outdoor seek thrill riders, perfect for hiking, biking and horseback riding, while thrill-seekers come from everywhere to explore more than 500 miles of rugged ATV paths.

THERE ARE FEW
crowds here, except during the festivals that celebrate the autumn harvest and changing of the leaves. And getting to those festivals is perhaps the most fun, because every bend in the country roads that take you there is worth a photograph.

NOW IMAGINE
that place is just a short drive away — less than a day from new or most of the congested East Coast metropolitan areas.

That place is West Virginia, Wild and Wonderful.

8/06

MAJOR FALL EVENTS IN WEST VIRGINIA
BLACK WALNUT FESTIVAL - SPENCER
This festival beginning in 1954 celebrates the abundant black walnut harvest. Visitors can buy handmade arts and crafts, watch agricultural and livestock competitions, compete in a corn roast, join in a dance and sample local food. There’s live entertainment, a colorful parade and a traditional beauty pageant.
October: www.wvblackwalnutfestival.org

HINTON RAILROAD DAYS - HINTON
Street fair in beautiful historic downtown Hinton coinciding with the arrival of the New River Train excursion from Huntington. More than 60 vendors sell fine arts and crafts, jewelry, one-of-a-kind items, quilts and much more. Food vendors offer a range of taste treats from chicken and dumplings, brown beans and cornbread, to barbecues, hotdogs, hamburgers, kielbasa sandwiches, pizza, frozen cakes and ice cream.
October: www.summerscvb.com

GOLFERS CAN TAME
the links on courses designed by the likes of Arnold Palmer, Pete Dye, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Robert Trent Jones Jr. These renowned architects of the game were inspired by the rugged terrain that surrounds their challenging masterpieces.

TRAILS FOR EVERY
type of outdoor seek thrill riders, perfect for hiking, biking and horseback riding, while thrill-seekers come from everywhere to explore more than 500 miles of rugged ATV paths.

THERE ARE FEW
crowds here, except during the festivals that celebrate the autumn harvest and changing of the leaves. And getting to those festivals is perhaps the most fun, because every bend in the country roads that take you there is worth a photograph.

NOW IMAGINE
that place is just a short drive away — less than a day from new or most of the congested East Coast metropolitan areas.

That place is West Virginia, Wild and Wonderful.

8/06
ITALIAN HERITAGE FESTIVAL - CLARKSBURG
The West Virginia Italian Heritage Festival has been rated among the top 100 events in North America and a top 20 event in the Southeast. The festival includes three days of free entertainment on three stages. Fantastic foods, children's entertainment, a grand parade, cultural events and pageants.
September: www.wvihf.com

MOUNTAIN HERITAGE ARTS & CRAFTS FESTIVAL - HARPER'S FERRY
Nearly 200 artisans selected for the high quality of their products will sell and demonstrate their wares at this nationally acclaimed festival. West Virginia wineries are participating with wine tasting and sales for off-premises consumption. Children's activities, such as pony rides and a mud play area, will be available. Enjoy a variety of food and the best in Bluegrass music.
September: www.jeffersoncounty.com/festival

PRESTON COUNTY
BUCKWHEAT FESTIVAL - KINGWOOD
Join the Kingwood community for its 65th annual buckwheat festival. Special parades salute firemen, schools and the community and local heritage. Agricultural and livestock exhibits and antique show the fineness and registration of the livestock. Horse shows, musical entertainment and local bowling. Best of all, buckwheat pancakes and sausage meals are dished up every day — all day long.
September: www.prestoncounty.com

MOUNTAIN STATE FOREST FESTIVAL - ELKINS
Promotes the beauty of West Virginia with more than 100 events — just a few highlights are the classic rock show, country music show, gospel sing, talent show, freestyle pageants, grand fireman's parade, children's parade, Coronation of Queen Libby, lumberjack contest, jousting, and entertainment at the city park and downtown stage.
September-October: www.forestfestival.com

BLACK WALNUT FESTIVAL - SPENCER
This festival beginning in 1954 celebrates the abundant black walnut harvest. Visitors can buy handmade arts and crafts, watch agricultural and livestock competitions, buy on a candle ride, join in a dance and sample local food. There's live entertainment, a colorful parade and a traditional beauty pageant.
October: www.wvblackwalnutfestival.org

HINTON RAILROAD DAYS - HINTON
Street fair in beautiful historic downtown Hinton coinciding with the arrival of the New River Train excursion from Huntington. More than 60 vendors sell fine art and crafts, jewelry, one-of-a-kind items, quilts and much more. Food vendors offer a range of tastes from chicken and dumplings, brown beans and cornbread, to barbecues, hotdogs, hamburgers, kielbasa sandwiches, pizza, funnel cakes and ice cream.
October: www.summerscvb.com

PICTURE A LAND
that's almost entirely covered in forest, interwoven with flowing mountain vistas, rocky crags and sparkling tumbling streams. Beneath the trees, the land is lofted with wildlife, from woodstorks and wild turkeys to rare salamanders and black bears.

RECREATION
abounds these including world class white-water rafting, mountain biking, rock-climbing and practicing for the adventurous. Relaxation is easy to find in the spa towns and in the shops that feature fine crafts made by locals. History lovers will love the Civil War and pioneer life re-enactments, while food connoisseurs delight at the variety of traditional fare and fine dining.

GOLFER CAN TAME
the links on courses designed by the likes of Arnold Palmer, Pete Dye, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Robert Trent Jones Jr. Those renowned architects of the game were inspired by the rugged terrain that surrounds their challenging masterpieces.

TRAILS FOR EVERY TYPE
of outdoor nature through a million acres of public recreation land. Families create memories on leisurely trail rides perfect for biking, hiking and horseback riding, while thrill-seekers come from everywhere to explore more than 500 miles of rugged ATV paths.

THERE ARE FEW crowds here, except during the festivals that celebrate the autumn harvests or changing of the leaves. And getting to those festivals is perhaps the most fun, because every bend in the country roads that take you there is worth a photograph.

NOW IMAGINE
that place is just a short drive away — less than a day from most of the congested East Coast metropolitan areas.
That place is West Virginia, Wild and Wonderful.
Use these suggested drives as a starting point on your fall visit to West Virginia. The West Virginia Division of Forestry provides weekly peak color updates and suggestions for scenic drives. When you might see the best leaf-peeping show. Visit www.callwva.com for the latest information. To order a free brochure, visit www.callwva.com for a list of West Virginia's scenic and historic byways and backroads.

WHERE TO START YOUR FALL DRIVING TOUR

SOUTHERN ACCENTS TOUR

Legend

---

About fall color

West Virginia is nearly 40 percent forested, making it the third-forested state in the country. The mixture of hardwoods and native maples and oaks, ranging from a few hundred feet above sea level to nearly a mile high, results in the highest fall foliage ratings. A visit from mid-September to early October, making this an ideal time to visit. Ferry National Historical Park and Blackwater Falls State Park. West Virginia is well positioned for the peak year-round recreation, from championship golf to hiking. Hiker's tour is recommended for its spectacular five-story waterfalls and hiking trails. The famous fahnestock mountains of Davis and Thomas have become big hiking areas with driving and nightlife recognized nationally as hidden gems. Take a scenic drive to nearby Dolly Sods Wilderness Area or the Allegheny Front for rock climbing and hiking at Seneca Rocks, a 900-foot sandstone outcropping. This area is home to fogged ground underpass pathways, crossing such interactions as Seneca and Smoke Hole canyons. Or you can reach for the star at the National Radio Astronomy Observatory at Green Bank, where huge radio telescope search outer space for signs of intelligent life and a modern interpreter's name explains the echo. Just a short drive from Green Bank, Cass Scenic Railroad's steam-powered Shay locomotives haul passengers nearly 13 tunnels on the pastoral North Bend Rail Trail. The state's largest peak in 10,100 acres and offers vacation cations and camping facilities. A few minutes' drive south in Deep Mountain-Battlefield State Park, west Virginia's westernmost park and one of the largest West Virginia in the state, featuring a major rock-slide re-formation every other October.

Golden Gateway Tour

In late October in the Eastern Panhandle, Harper's Ferry National Historical Park is a ideal destination for fall colors. Located at the confluence of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, Harpers Ferry is one of the most scenic towns in the state, and even more beautiful at the peak of autumn. The parkland is diverse in its environment. From the bottom to the uppermost levels, the diversity of Aghar valley racing at Charles Town Races, shows is something for everyone.

From the bottom to the uppermost levels, the diversity of Aghar valley racing at Charles Town Races, shows is something for everyone.

Mountain Magic Tour

Grey, early from beginning painting the woodlands with fall colors from mid-September to early October, making this an ideal time to visit America's Best Whitewater, set along the spectacular New River Gorge National River. While there, visit the New River Gorge Bridge, the second highest span in the U.S., or take advantage of miles of hiking and biking trails. From here it's onward to historic Leesburg, just off I-64, where residences and buildings in this national historic district date from the 18th century. Quaint waterfronts, antique shops, gas lamps and the lack of overboardPurchase lines enhance its character. Just down the road in White Sulphur Springs is the world-famous, five-diamond Greenbrier resort that offers luxurious accommodations, a mile high to the top of Bald Knob, offering a perfect view of beautiful fall color. You may also experience stunning autumn beauty by driving along the Highland Scenic Highway. West Virginia's Route 130, 22 miles of unspoiled, serene landscapes and valley 4,000 feet high. At the southern end of the scenic Highway is Cranberry Glades, a natural botanical gardens of unique bog vegetation and plant life being more of its normal range. To the east, U.S. 219, in Whitesburg State Park. The state's largest park in 10,100 acres and offers vacation cations and camping facilities. A few minutes' drive south in Deep Mountain-Battlefield State Park, west Virginia's westernmost park and one of the largest West Virginia in the state, featuring a major rock-slide re-formation every other October.

Where to start your fall driving tour

Use these suggested drives as a starting point on your fall visit to West Virginia. The West Virginia Division of Forestry provides weekly peak color updates and suggestions for scenic drives. When you might see the best leaf-peeping show. Visit www.callwva.com for the latest information.

To order a free brochure, visit www.callwva.com for a list of West Virginia's scenic and historic byways and backroads.

GOLDEN GATEWAY TOUR

In late October, the Potomac River around the resort. Other nearby lakes are breathtaking. Located east of Morgantown, the views of the 1,200-foot-deep Cheat River Gorge are dotted with spectacular locally owned restaurants. In the Charles Town area is no exception. Equally historic is nearby Mecklenburg, with its 18th-century anthracite and famous Battle of Monongahela in 1774. Located at the confluence of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, Harpers Ferry is one of the most scenic towns in the state, and even more beautiful at the peak of autumn. The parkland is diverse in its environment. From the bottom to the uppermost levels, the diversity of Aghar valley racing at Charles Town Races, shows is something for everyone.

From the bottom to the uppermost levels, the diversity of Aghar valley racing at Charles Town Races, shows is something for everyone.

Mountain Magic Tour

Grey, early from beginning painting the woodlands with fall colors from mid-September to early October, making this an ideal time to visit America's Best Whitewater, set along the spectacular New River Gorge National River. While there, visit the New River Gorge Bridge, the second highest span in the U.S., or take advantage of miles of hiking and biking trails. From here it's onward to historic Leesburg, just off I-64, where residences and buildings in this national historic district date from the 18th century. Quaint waterfronts, antique shops, gas lamps and the lack of overboardPurchase lines enhance its character. Just down the road in White Sulphur Springs is the world-famous, five-diamond Greenbrier resort that offers luxurious accommodations, a mile high to the top of Bald Knob, offering a perfect view of beautiful fall color. You may also experience stunning autumn beauty by driving along the Highland Scenic Highway. West Virginia's Route 130, 22 miles of unspoiled, serene landscapes and valley 4,000 feet high. At the southern end of the scenic Highway is Cranberry Glades, a natural botanical gardens of unique bog vegetation and plant life being more of its normal range. To the east, U.S. 219, in Whitesburg State Park. The state's largest park in 10,100 acres and offers vacation cations and camping facilities. A few minutes' drive south in Deep Mountain-Battlefield State Park, west Virginia's westernmost park and one of the largest West Virginia in the state, featuring a major rock-slide re-formation every other October.

Where to start your fall driving tour

Use these suggested drives as a starting point on your fall visit to West Virginia. The West Virginia Division of Forestry provides weekly peak color updates and suggestions for scenic drives. When you might see the best leaf-peeping show. Visit www.callwva.com for the latest information.

To order a free brochure, visit www.callwva.com for a list of West Virginia's scenic and historic byways and backroads.

GOLDEN GATEWAY TOUR

In late October, the Potomac River around the resort. Other nearby lakes are breathtaking. Located east of Morgantown, the views of the 1,200-foot-deep Cheat River Gorge are dotted with spectacular locally owned restaurants. In the Charles Town area is no exception. Equally historic is nearby Mecklenburg, with its 18th-century anthracite and famous Battle of Monongahela in 1774. Located at the confluence of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, Harpers Ferry is one of the most scenic towns in the state, and even more beautiful at the peak of autumn. The parkland is diverse in its environment. From the bottom to the uppermost levels, the diversity of Aghar valley racing at Charles Town Races, shows is something for everyone.
ItalIan HerItage FestIval - Clarksburg

The West Virginia Italian Heritage Festival has been rated among the top 100 events in North America and a top 20 event in the Southeast. The festival includes three days of free entertainment on three stages. Fantastic foods, children's entertainment, a grand parade, cultural events and queens' pageant.

september: www.wvihf.com

MountaIn HerItage arts & CraFts FestIval – Harpers Ferry

Nearly 200 artisans selected for the high quality of their products will sell and demonstrate their wares at this nationally acclaimed festival. West Virginia wineries are participating with wine tasting and sales for off-premises consumption. Children's activities, such as pony rides and a model railway display, will be available. Enjoy a variety of food and the best in Bluegrass music.

september: www.jeffersoncounty.com/festival

preston County buCkwHeat FestIval - kIngwood

Join the Kingwood community for its 65th annual buckwheat festival. Special parades salute firemen, schools and the community and local heritage. Agricultural and livestock exhibits and awards share the fairgrounds with arts & crafts, carnival rides, distance runs, musical entertainment and Irish bowling. Best of all, buckwheat pancakes and sausage meals are dished up every day — all day long.

september: www.prestoncounty.com

MountaIn state Forest FestIval - elkIns

Promotes the beauty of West Virginia with more than 100 events - just a few highlights are the classic rock show, country music show, gospel sing, talent show, fireman's parade, grand feature parade, Irish road bowling, children's parade, Coronation of Queen Silvia, lumberjack contest, jousting, and entertainment at the city park and downtown stage.

september-october: www.forestfestival.com

black walnut FestIval - spenCer

This festival beginning in 1954 celebrates the abundant black walnut harvest. Visitors can buy handmade arts and crafts, watch agricultural and livestock competitions, hop on a carnival ride, join in a dance and sample local food. Plus there's live entertainment, a colorful parade and a traditional beauty pageant.

october: www.wvblackwalnutfestival.org

HInton raIlroad days - HInton

Street fair in beautiful historic downtown Hinton coinciding with the arrival of the New River Train excursion from Huntington. More than 60 vendors sell fine art and crafts, jewelry, one-of-a-kind items, quilts and much more. Food vendors offer a range of taste treats from chicken and dumplings, brown beans and cornbread, to barbecues, hotdogs, hamburgers, kielbasa sandwiches, pizza, funnel cakes and ice cream.

october: www.summerscvb.com

HINTON:

MajOr Fall events In west vIrgInIa

For More InForMatIon on these and Many otHer great Fall events In west vIrgInIa, vIsIt www.Callwva.CoM or Call 1-800-Call wva.

"Climb the mountains and get their good tidings. Nature's peace will flow into you as sunshine flows into trees. The winds will blow their own freshness into you, and the storms their energy, while cares will drop away from you like the leaves of Autumn."

- John Muir

new rIver gorge brIdge day FestIval - FayettevIlle

Bridge Day is the largest extreme sports event in the world and is held the third Saturday in October every year in Fayetteville. Hundreds of BASE jumpers and nearly 200,000 spectators attend. The New River Gorge Bridge, at 876 feet tall and the world's second longest single arch bridge, serves as the launch point for six hours of legal BASE jumps.

october: www.officialbridgeday.com

puMpkIn FestIval - MIlton

The West Virginia Pumpkin Festival is a family activity with juried arts and crafts, commercial and business displays, live entertainment and food that all celebrate the autumn pumpkin harvest. Thursday and Friday are Kids Days with appropriate entertainment and educational programs. Features the Largest Pumpkin Contest to determine the largest pumpkin grown in West Virginia each year.

october: www.wvpumpkinpark.com

taste oF our towns FestIval - lewIsburg

Scheduled during the most colorful time of the year, Taste of our Towns (TOOT) is a fall favorite in West Virginia! Please the palate with great food ranging from fried chicken and hot dogs to gourmet dishes and homemade desserts. Enjoy foods of Appalachia as well as specialties from The Greenbrier, Tamarack and the Greenbrier Valley's own restaurants. There is something for everyone! TOOT features live music, museum exhibits, a juried art and craft show, a street dance, pony rides and children's activities.

october: www.carnegiehallwv.com

8/06